Mr. K. M. Ibrahim (Cranganur): With reference to sub-division (c), line No. 2, may I know whether this is applicable to the staff correspondents of the National War Front ?

Mr. P. V. Raphael (Comptroller of Finance and Accounts): No.

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim (Cranganur): Why, Sir.

Mr. P. V. Raphael (Comptroller of Finance and Accounts): They are not regular employees of the Government.

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim (Cranganur): They are employees of the Government. Are not the staff correspondents of the National War Front full-time Government servants?

Mr. P. V. Raphael (Comptroller of Finance and Accounts): They are not paid this allowance and they are not considered as full-time Government servants.

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim (Cranganur): They are full-time Government servants.

Mr. President: Order, Order, the Hon'ble Member has answered.

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim (Cranganur): My point is the hon'ble member is not authorised to answer. The Hon'ble Minister must answer me.

Mr. President: The Hon'ble Member has already answered the question.] You are not putting a supplementary question.

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim (Cranganur): Without hearing me, how do you know I am not putting a supplementary question?

Mr. President: If the Hon'ble Member wants any further in formationon the point raised in this question, he may put a further supplementary question.

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim (Cranganur): Will the Hon'ble Minister be pleased to say whether the staff correspondents of the National War Front are considered to be full-time Government servants or not?

Mr. President: Order, Order, that question does not arise out of this present question.

Mr. A. V. Moothedan (Chalakkudi): May I know whether the Finance Member can give some illustration of the places covered by A and B, namely, whether British Cochin falls under A or B.

Mr. P. V. Raphael (Comptroller of Finance and Accounts): So far as I know, British Cochin comes under B.

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim (Cranganur): May I know whether the Government intend to increase the pay of the staff correspondents of the National War Front.

Mr. President: That does not arise,

161. Mr. K. Narayana Menon (Mulakunnathukavu): Will Government be pleased to state.—

Court is functioning ;

(b) whether when granting dearness allowance, this allowance is calculated as the basic salary ;

(c) whether it is not hard if the additional allowance temporary in nature for extra work exacted is taken to deprive the officer of this dearness allowance he is otherwise entitled to ;

(d) whether Government will be pleased to reconsider their cases sympathetically?

Mr. P. V. Raphael (Comptroller of Finance and Accounts): (a) 7 per mensem.

(b) Yes.

(c) The grant of dearness allowance to subordinates is mainly with a view to compensate them for the high rise in the cost of living and for this purpose, emoluments as a whole have to be taken into account regardless of the nature of the various items that go to make up the aggregate remuneration. Items that do not really enhance remuneration such as fixed T.A., conveyance allowance, special tract allowance, water allowance, etc., are excluded for purposes of calculating dearness allowance but allowances in the nature of personal duty allowance, etc., have to be included.

(d) There is no case for any reconsideration.
